LOCATED ON THE GROUNDS OF THE FIRST CHEROKEE NATIONAL FEMALE SEMINARY,

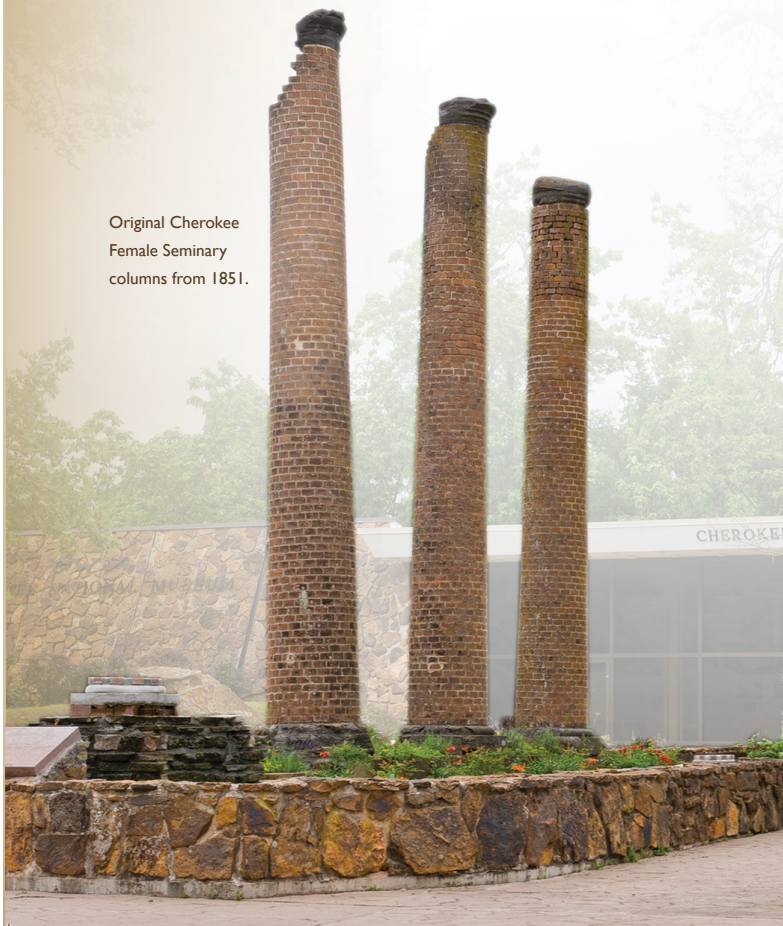

THE CHEROKEE HERITAGE CENTER WAS ESTABLISHED IN 1967 TO PRESERVE AND PROMOTE THE CHEROKEE LEGACY.

The Cherokee Heritage Center is the heart of Cherokee tribal history, culture, and art.

In 2014, Cherokee Heritage Center's theme is "Think Cherokee." This theme simply demonstrates the heart of Cherokee Heritage Center's mission statement and its connection with the community.

Visit the Cherokee Heritage Center and discover the legacy that defined a nation.

ATTRACTIONS

DILIGWA

Time travel to Diligwa – a 1710 outdoor Cherokee living village – located on the grounds of the Cherokee Heritage Center. Here, observe Cherokee life during the early eighteenth century. Villagers demonstrate traditional Cherokee crafts while explaining history and culture.

SPECIAL EXHIBIT GALLERY

This gallery houses a variety of Cherokee themed exhibits throughout the year in addition to featuring two, nationally recognized Native American art shows.

CHEROKEE FAMILY RESEARCH CENTER

The Cherokee Family Research Center (CFRC) was established to aid persons in search of their Cherokee heritage and ancestry. CFRC resources from the Trail of Tears (1838 - 1839) to the Dawes enrollment (1900 - 1906) are specific to Cherokee people.

ADAMS CORNER RURAL VILLAGE

Explore the great change in Cherokee society in the days before Oklahoma statehood. At your own pace, tour a general store, three different types of housing, a school and a church in this 1890s setting.

TRAIL OF TEARS EXHIBIT

The Trail of Tears exhibit chronicles the forced removal of Cherokee ancestors from their indigenous homeland to Indian Territory, present-day Oklahoma. The exhibit is staged in six galleries and includes documentation and artifacts.

MUSEUM STORE

Indulge your taste for distinctive Cherokee artwork and gifts. Choose from an extensive collection of original paintings, sculptures, Cherokee apparel, books, authentic souvenirs and more.

CHEROKEE NATIONAL HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEMBERSHIPS

The Cherokee Heritage Center was established in 1963 by the Cherokee National Historical Society to preserve, promote and teach Cherokee history and culture. By becoming a member of the Cherokee National Historical Society, you are providing direct support to the Cherokee Heritage Center. Help preserve Cherokee culture today.
