Questions

See the answers to the following questions in RED below each question.

Are any of the 7 units under a manufacturer or dealer service agreement now, or is this a clean takeover?

No, Jay, Salina and Collinsville are under a contractor warranty that will be expiring soon. This will be a clean takeover.

For the November ATS test with building power off, do we schedule each site directly with the site manager or who does that go through?

It will be scheduled through the Maintenance department. Rod Luper
