

Request for Proposals Mural Project Fletcher Park, Stilwell, Oklahoma

Summary

The community of Stilwell, in partnership with Cherokee Nation Businesses (CNB), is accepting proposals for a mural to be painted in Stilwell's downtown Fletcher Park. The community seeks submissions that help illustrate the story of Cherokee Nation within the Stilwell area. Possible themes include, but are not limited to: Trail of Tears, Flint District, railroads, the Strawberry Festival, Golda's Mill, Cherokee Nation Industries and Wilma Mankiller. Artists' submission should reflect the Cherokee Nation's unique story within the Stilwell area.

Description

Artist proposals should include a sketch of the mural concept and design, images of previous completed works, and a breakdown of mural pricing.

The available space for the mural is shown below, along with a diagram of dimensions:

CNB reserves the right to retain original sketches and to use images of the mural in future projects, where applicable.
